

Comprehension questions to use when reading non-fiction.

Answer these questions before you read.

1. List three things you think you might learn about in this book.
2. Write 2 – 3 words you think you will probably read in this book.

Answer these questions after you read.

1. What topic does the author write about?
2. What was interesting about this book?
3. One question I would like to ask the author is _____?
4. One thing I did not know is _____?
5. List 4 – 5 words that you didn't know before.
6. What was the author trying to teach you?
7. Does this book have a glossary? What does a glossary tell you?
8. Find a bolded word. What is it? What does it mean? Why is it bolded?
9. Look in the index or table of contents. What was your favorite section? Why?
10. Does your book have any pictures that have a caption? How does the caption making finding information easier?